VOL. IV. NO. 63.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Lieutenant-Colonel L. N. Schoenfeld's stable was unprofitably sold and injected into the generality of racing at New Orleans Saturday. Someone got something in its order. Lt.-Col. Schoenfeld declares in favor of future gold hunting in Alaska. The turf will pant—or not pant—as it may be, for the Lt.-Col. He declares for the sea. It's healthful embrace invites him in an enveloping sort of way. Every man is his own man and passing up Atlantic oceanism, Lt.-Col. Schoenfeld elects to tintinabulate upon the more mellow waves of the Pacific. The Alaskan field is a wide and shining one—in summer. The route thereto is broad, briny and brisk. If Lt.-Col. Schoenfeld gets to it, it will feel his more or less gentle influence. This influence—so to write—may be educational. The Alaskan atmosphere needs the warmth of permanency. Lt.-Col. Schoenfeld is a warm member. He can permeate the crisp and cheerful air of his chosen abodes and take his own part. If there's any gold in any Alaskan nooks, it is—in part—likely to drift within Lt.-Col. Schoenfeld's embrace. The reaper usually reaps according to labor.

The anxious public is also informed that "Counselor Bill" Brien—white coat included—is ahead of Col. Schoenfeld in a gold and cold storage foray upon the left hand, high corner of the American-Canadian continent. The "Counselor" isn't bad himself. It is intrinsically and tearfully to be hoped that two such past masters in the art of do-the-best-you-canism, will not collide, mingle, mix up, or be forced to use their full and opposing power in Alaska. If such an episode should happen—accidents will—Vesuvius in its lavacic energy would be a mere plate of ice cream in the way of energetic differences.

Mr. Marcus Daly's horses now in trainer Wm. Lakeland's charge are as follows:

NORTHERN CIRCUIT AFFAIRS.

The total number of entries received for the twenty stakes offered by the Northern Racing Circuit, which includes the tracks at Highland Park, Detroit, Windsor, Fort Erie and Montreal, is 1,498. The event receiving the best support is the Brewers' Stake, with 114 nominations. The Cascade Stakes has 107, the Michigan Derby 50, the Banner 91, the Canadian Derby 42, Windsor Hotel 102, the Essex 87, the Belle Isle 74, the Bel Air 79, Forest and Stream 73, St. Lawrence 75, Merchants' 58, Consolation 45, Welland 81, Queenstown 83, Niagara 66, Canadian Sportsman 73 and Garland 80.

Mr. Farmer states that the recent sale of the Fort Erie track will in no wise affect the lease which he and his company have on the property, and that the meeting will come off as scheduled. It has been published in a number of papers that John J. Carter would be the presiding judge on the circuit, but this is not positively known yet. The position has been tendered Mr. Carter but has not been accepted by him, though the chances are that he will do so this week. Inducements have been offered Mr. Carter to remain in California all the spring and summer, and if he comes to the northern circuit he will be under the necessity of declining the offer made to him to remain on the Coast.—Spirit of the Times.

Daily Racing Form in San Francisco.

Readers of DAILY RACING FORM in San Francisco can get the paper regularly from Foster & Orear, Ferry Building, foot of Market Street.

WHY IRON HILL DID NOT RUN.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., March 14.—The Elkton people secured an injunction restraining the Iron Hill track from opening to-day, based on a verbal agreement between the management of the two tracks. The Elkton track was not quite in shape to race to-day, but will be all right tomorrow. The Elkton folks will probably take up the balance of the time allowed the outlaws in Maryland—the limit being April 4.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses belonging to A. H. & D. H. Morris won last year the aggregate sum of $45,430. The Friar with $25,375 to his credit was the leading contributor, followed in order by Varus, $7,050; Bowling Brook, $5,390; Casseopia, $4,250 and Cherry Picker, $3,075. Twenty-one horses started for the stable. They won twenty-one races, were sixteen times second and twenty-seven third.

J. M., Chicago.—At Garfield Park, August 22, 1891, Marion C, 119, beat Kingston, 124, Aloha, 124, and Verge d'Or, 122; 1½ miles; time, 1:55. At the same track, Sept. 2, 1891, Kingston, 122, beat Marion C, 119, and Verge d'Or, 122; 1½ miles; time, 1:54.

L. Treuhof, 384 S. Halsted St., Chicago, Ill.—You ask for information that would cost $1000 and thirty days labor. Please forward that sum to this office and the data will be sent by express—under a military escort—about April 15.

At Lexington, Thursday, Bradley Bros. 2-year-old colt Greatlands worked an easy half in 52. This is the best touted colt of the year and will be the exception to the rule in such cases if he does not prove to be a failure when real action comes.

Enquirer, Chicago, Ill.—So far as DAILY RACING FORM knows the Morris progressive system will not do. If its operator considers that it will, some figures can be furnished him personally or in the way of publication.

Fleischmann Sons are reported to have offered John E. Madden $17,500 for Plaudit and Madden is reported to have refused the offer. The report comes from Louisville, a very unreliable source of turf news.

A movement is on foot to have the Turf Congress consider the adoption of a rule prohibiting racing associations from leasing their betting privileges to an individual or corporation with exclusive rights.

Buck Massie and Souffle are to begin their long trip from San Francisco to Memphis within a few days. Both have won in California but both have been disappointments.

By way of taking time by the forelock the Crescent City Jockey Club has already secured the services of Starter Fitzgerald for next winter at New Orleans.

Cyclist Michael has abandoned the idea of becoming a jockey, so his manager, David Shafer, states with emphasis.

Sister Mary is in foal to Midlothian, and is to be bred back to St. Carlo.

Winner—Ch. c. by Midlothian—Alameda.
Start fair. Won in a gallop; next seven driving. Luis was best, lucky and well ridden. The colt is good. Barracan was poorly handled, cut off on first and stretch turns, but closed strong. He is ready. Moringa ran his race. He is consistent. Keep him on the tab. He closed stoutly and is good. Was badly ridden. Bow and Arrow and Mordecai were both good horses at the finish. Watch them. Ball was overweighted and used too much. Watomba was short and is only a sprinter. Watch her, though. So tab Topics. Watch him also. Lebel is a dasher, was short and outclassed. Magnus cannot go a route.
Scratched—Sadie Schwartz, 97; Kimmell, 97; Glen Ann, 97; Morana, 98; Brambella, 105; Elsmore, 107; Donator, 110; Go To Bed, 110; Prince Blazes, 110.

Winner—Br. c. by Watercress—Shasta.
Start good. Won ridden out. The right colt won. There was a drive for the place. Mossbrae was lucky and will favor a route. Banewor was short. She is game. This race will fit her. Formero ran as if stale. Watch him though. So tab Olinthus. He was vilely ridden. Juanita can be kept in view; showed speed and was short.
